

General Stink!

A Serious Call to All Minnesota Citizens!

Are you: Sick of the State Shutdown?
Sick of the Financial waste (24 Million + or - a Week)?
Sick of the two parties acting like their own side doesn't stink?

Take Action!: Throw the Stinkin' Fiscal Waste Back at Them!

General STINK: A Smelly NonViolent & Stinky Symbolic Peaceful Protest.

Participate: Bring your Silage Wagon.
Bring your Manure Spreader.
Bring your Animal or Pet Feces.
Bring your Fish Eviscerations.
Bring your Moldy Cheese & Smelly Stuff.

Come by: Tractor, Semi, Truck, Trailor, Camper, RV, Bus, Van, Auto, Motorcycle, Moped, Bike, Wheelchair, Stroller, Horse, Llama, Elephant, Donkey, Foot, or Dog sled.

Simply Drive by and Dump your Stinky Stuff at the Capital. Use of Recycled bags welcome.

Can't make it to the State Capital? Drop it off at your County Court House or local state municipality.

Don't have corn silage yet or a manure spreader? How about dead skunk or roadkill?
Drop off a bag of manure or compost (or two). Please, nothing harmful or explosive.

Don't have time? Call, write or email your Governor, State Senator or State Representative, and local council now and express your smelly outrage! Come on—get stinky now!

Your state elected officials will be responsible for the clean-up of their own fiscal waste.
Their mishandling of your taxpayer funds is a detriment to our great state!

Date: Friday, July 22, 2011. Rain or Shine. Whether they talk or not, compromised or not, or called a Special Session or not. Show up and let them smell the stink!

Time: All day! All night...All hours. 24-7. A durational odiferous event!

Place: Minnesota State Capital grounds and surrounds. Remember, you own the State Capital. (If they are blocked off, drop it off at the road barriers.)

Who: All Minnesota Citizens, family, friends, neighbors, visitors, taxpayers, and pets. That means Everyone: From Agriculturists & Artists, Government Workers & Garage Door
Repairpersons, to TV Evangelists & Right-Wing Lobbyists, to Zen Teachers & Zoo
Keepers. We also welcome summertime visitors and guests from neighboring states, other continents, regions, permacultures, Mexico, and Canada. All are Welcome!

The citizens that fiscally waste together, fiscally stink together!
